E-Cell Faculty of Engineering and Technology, University of Lucknow

Entrepreneurship Cell of Faculty of Engineering and Technology, University of Lucknow is an active non-profit, completely student-run organisation which supports and aims to create entrepreneurial ideas among the students.

Our Vision

Our vision is to make students, professionals, and faculty “entrepreneurial” in every work they do; and instil an entrepreneurial mindset in everyone to identify problems, apply creative ideas, find solution and lead innovations.

Our Mission

The mission of the Entrepreneurship Cell is to foster and promote an entrepreneurial spirit among students and provide them with necessary knowledge, resources, and support to develop their entrepreneurial skills and venture into the world of startups and business.

Here at E-Cell, what we do?

E-Cell organises a variety of events to promote entrepreneurial activities in and around the campus. We collaborate with start-ups to organize webinars, seminars, and competitive events and get to know their working in greater depth. We create awareness to inspire and engage students in entrepreneurship. We provide mentorship to early-stage startup aspirants. Some of our big events are under planning and will be announced with time.
